

NOTICE

To All Students Who are Registering for Make-up Examination of Jan – June 2020 Semester

Further to my notice posted on make-up examinations, students are kindly reminded on the following.

When you opt to sit for the make-up examination, the marks already obtained at regular examination offered online in the Jan – June semester will be annulled, and the marks of make-up final examination will be considered along with the CA marks of the module to determine the grade as per the guidelines of the Rule Book.

If you fail to obtain a pass grade in the make-up examination, the C pass already obtained will no longer be valid.

Please see below an extract from the notice published prior to Jan – June Semester Online Examination.

Extract/

“Students who wish to decline the C grade already obtained will be given the option of taking the make-up final examination, ~~which will be an on-campus examination~~. In such cases the online final examination marks already obtained for the current semester will be annulled and the marks of make-up final examination will be considered along with the CA marks of the module to determine the grade as per the guidelines of the Rule Book. No additional fee will be charged for make-up final examination.”

/End of Extract**

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE MAKE-UP EXAMINATION WILL BE OFFERED ONLINE.
